MIDWESTERN
ARTISTS' EXHIBITION

THE KANSAS CITY ART INSTITUTE
3500 WARWICK BOULEVARD

NEW HOME OF THE KANSAS CITY ART INSTITUTE
44th and Warwick Boulevard
Kansas City, Missouri

FOREWORD

IF ONE may judge from the number of works submitted and accepted for the Annual Midwestern Artists' Exhibition of 1928, there is a steadily increasing interest in art throughout the middlewest, and especially in the efforts put forth by the Kansas City Art Institute to encourage artists living in this territory. Recent developments in Kansas City have greatly stimulated this interest; the plans for the Nelson and Atkins museums are being prepared and the Kansas City Art Institute has just been given a splendid new home, (see cut on opposite page). The outlook is indeed encouraging.

The Midwestern Exhibition affords an opportunity for the artist to place his work before the public, and it is only by continued effort that we may hope to see satisfactory results. This exhibition offers rare opportunities to secure splendid pictures at reasonable prices.
